JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

•	Monday - 6 March 1961
	Met with Mr. Allen Pierce, on the staff of the Japaner of industriction studies and has a ware responsivery planer.	int Committee on Defense Production, and left with him ORR's "The Comparative Status of U.S. and USSR Machine Tool is", (classified SECRET). Pierce was very much interested in and was quite surprised to note the Soviet figures in the study. This type of information was very helpful to the Committee which tehdog function ever the Executive departments which have bilities in the defense production and mobilization area. He was used to have a visit from an Agency representative and said he to call on us for similar papers in the future. He gave me
of the Japaner of industriction studies and has a ware responsivery planer.	int Committee on Defense Production, and left with him ORR's "The Comparative Status of U.S. and USSR Machine Tool is", (classified SECRET). Pierce was very much interested in and was quite surprised to note the Soviet figures in the study, this type of information was very helpful to the Committee which takdog function ever the Executive departments which have bilities in the defense production and mobilization area. He was used to have a visit from an Agency representative and said he to call on us for similar papers in the future. He gave me the Committee's 10th annual report which will be referred to
of the Jepaper of Industricthe studies and has a weare place of the property place of the place of	int Committee on Defense Production, and left with him ORR's "The Comparative Status of U.S. and USSR Machine Tool is", (classified SECRET). Pierce was very much interested in and was quite surprised to note the Soviet figures in the study. This type of information was very helpful to the Committee which tehdog function ever the Executive departments which have bilities in the defense production and mobilization area. He was used to have a visit from an Agency representative and said he to call on us for similar papers in the future. He gave me of the Jopaper of Industria the stud No said has a we responsively ple might licopies of clearance.	int Committee on Defense Production, and left with him ORR's "The Comparative Status of U.S. and USSR Machine Tool is", (classified SECRET). Pierce was very much interested in and was quite surprised to note the Soviet figures in the study, this type of information was very helpful to the Committee which tehdog function ever the Executive departments which have bilities in the defense production and mobilization area. He was used to have a visit from an Agency representative and said he to call on us for similar papers in the future. He gave me the Committee's 10th annual report which will be referred to ORR, for information. (It is noted that Al Pierce has a TS

25X1

25X1

25X1